Jürg Borer is the founder of the boutique law firm Borer Attorneys at Law Ltd. He is a leading expert in Swiss and European competition law. Further, he has established a strong reputation as a practitioner in energy and communication law. He advises national and international clients in high-profile administrative proceedings, merger control notifications and civil litigations.

After graduating from the University of St. Gallen (lic. iur. 1982, doctorate 1988 [summa cum laude]), he started his professional career as legal secretary at the Swiss Federal Supreme Court, continuing as a research assistant at the Max Planck Institute in Hamburg. Later, while heading the international legal service of the former Federal Office of Foreign Economic Affairs in Bern, he was involved in the preparatory work for the Swiss Act on Cartels. Prior to founding his own boutique law firm, he was for more than twenty years a partner in two major business law firms in Zurich.

Jürg Borer is a lecturer at the University of Lucerne and Zurich and is the author of the commentary on the Swiss Federal Act on Cartels, among other publications on competition law.

He is listed as a leading practitioner for competition law in several international registries.
